Teach Abroad Resources/Programs

Teaching English as a second language is a great way to work abroad and get paid. Many programs require a BA; however, some do not require any teacher training/certification or language proficiency other than English. Many positions are available in Asia and Eastern Europe. Volunteer programs are also offering teaching opportunities.

Resource Websites

Bridge TEFL
www.bridgetefl.com
Certification to teach English as a Foreign Language

TAUGHT Magazine
www.taughtmag.com
Magazine about the experiences of CIEE Teach Abroad participants

Programs

CIEE Teach Abroad
www.ciee.org/teach Offers paid teaching placements in seven countries

Cultural Embrace
www.culturalembrace.com

Department of Defense Education Activity www.dodea.edu/home Places professional teachers in international schools

Educators Abroad
www.globalst.org

Fulbright Teaching Program
http://us.fulbrightonline.org/thinking_teaching.html

Global Student Teaching and English Language Teaching Assistant Program www.morris.umn.edu/GST/ and www.morris.umn.edu/ELTAP/Organizes student teaching and unpaid teaching assistant placements while earning university credit

International Schools Services www.iss.edu
Places professional teachers in international schools

International teaching program in Chile www.centrodevoluntarios.cl Chilean Ministry of Education with support from the United Nations Development Program recruits teachers to teach English in Chilean public schools JET Program
www.jetprogramme.org
Japanese program that is one of the world’s leader in placing assistant teachers

Spain’s Cultural Ambassador Program
Language and culture assistants in Spain

Marshall University Teach in China program www.marshall.edu/gochina

NET Program
Places full-time teachers in Hong Kong

Peace Corps
www.peacecorps.gov
Three months of training and an opportunity to develop fluency in a language and knowledge of another culture

Teaching programs in France http://www.gooverseas.com/teach-abroad/france

Teach and Learn in Korea (TaLK) www.talk.go.kr
Open to both undergraduate students and recent college graduates, the TaLK Program is supported by funds for 300 TaLK Scholars each semester to teach conversational English in rural Korean elementary schools. The program provides a 1-month orientation, round-trip airfare, a settling-in allowance, a monthly living stipend of approximately $1,300, health insurance and organized trips to historical locations in Korea. Additional information for the program is available via e-mail request to talkkoreapr@gmail.com.

University of Northern Iowa www.uni.edu/placement/overseas
Places professional teachers in international schools

World Camp
www.worldcampforkids.org
Volunteer teaching opportunities in remote disadvantaged communities; teach children about HIV/AIDS, gender empowerment and environmental issues specific to local communities

WorldTeach
www.worldteach.org
Some locations you have to pay to go and others are fully funded by the local governments. Volunteers receive stipends in all locations, but just enough for food and basics. Housing is provided. They have summer programs for current university students.

Last updated 1/7/2014