

UNIVERSITY COMMUNITY SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION FORM (2024-2025)

Deadline:

All application materials must be received by 2 pm EST on Thursday, April 11, 2024. Only complete applications will be considered.

Requirements:

Applicant must be an undergraduate student in the 2024-25 academic year (either returning in the fall or an incoming student).

A complete application consists of:

- Application form
- Personal statement
- Two (2) letters of support from individuals who can describe and speak to the depth of the student's community involvement beyond paid employment or academic requirements, as well as academic excellence. (Note: Work study and RA employment are not applicable.)

Additional Information:

Applications must have at least two letters of support; applications with fewer than two will not be considered. Additional letters of support and supporting materials related to the student's community involvement are welcome. Please be as specific and detailed as necessary.

Applicants are responsible for ensuring letters of support are received by the deadline.

Letters and materials can be submitted directly by the student or the person writing the letter (Word or PDF docs only) to the contact listed below. For questions, please contact Elizabeth Valinski, Scholarship Selection Committee Chair, at Elizabeth.Valinski@unh.edu.
